A) Agenda

Show the working of tools made till now, and to discuss future strategy.

B) Important Points

- Nitish showed him the progress in noise cancellation he was getting using “sox” library.
- Shivam discussed how a mobile app should be, and proposed for post-processing for noise reduction in case of mobile.
- Neeraj proposed to use a different library that works using Linear Predictive Coding for noise reduction.
- Romil asked for sample audio files which we could test our code.
- Mani analyzed the audio files using Wavesurfer and told us about problems in current implementation. (uploaded in tests folder on repo)
- Shivam displayed the current tool which was able to find different nouns, verbs, etc in the string.
- Shivam asked doubts on Tool-1 which were as follows :
 - Option of recursively crawling a URL.
 - Any more parameters needed to analyze sentences except which were previously specified.
- Mani and Neeraj together agreed for above questions as :
 - Yes, there needs to be a checkbox while we add the URL to do the same.
 - No, only these old ones are needed right now.
- Adhish and Romil told about their present progress in task assigned to them, i.e. learning of PyQt.
